One of them realizing the healing that had happened, came back, praising and glorifying God. – Luke 17:15

Today's gospel is about giving thanks all ways. The fullest form of thanks to God is expressed in the Eucharistic life. The Eucharistic celebration is a profound thanksgiving for the gift of salvation of all in Christ. This morning as we celebrate our Eucharist amid creation, we are aware that in every moment of our day we live Eucharist in sharing all we have received. As we extend love and compassion, we are the presence and peace of our Creator. Hope is vibrant and alive. Let us walk each step in deep gratitude.

Our Lives
BROKEN
for the life of the world

IN THANKSGIVING WE PRAY:

Just as Jesus identified with the earth when he said of the bread and wine, This is my body, take and eat... This is my blood, take and drink, we also identify with all creatures of Earth as we come to this table:

the sun that warmed the soil,
the soil that nurtured the seed,
the rain that watered new growth,
the hands who harvested the food we are about to eat.

Yes, we are earth, too!

Just as Jesus offered himself as food for the nourishment of all, we also offer ourselves to be food for others as we daily share our lives.

What a lovely act of communion, what a gracious act of solidarity!

May our eating be healing for the whole Earth community.

We pray in union with the Holy Trinity, Creator, Redeemer, Sanctifier. Amen.
