

CELEBRATION OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK.

Following the homily, all are invited to be prayed for individually by prayer teams. The presider offers anointing. This sacrament provides spiritual, psychological and emotional healing and health of mind and body. Come and celebrate this sign of God's great merciful and healing love.

Comfort and Healing

In Mark 6:12-13, St. Mark tells the apostles, to "anoint with oil many sick people and heal them. In James 5:14-15, St. James asks, "Is any one among you sick? Then call in the priest and the faith community and have them pray over those who are sick and anoint them with oil in the name of Christ. And this prayer of faith will save the frail and raise them up."

The Oil of the Sick is blessed by the bishop at the cathedral on Holy Thursday morning. It is pure olive oil. The characteristic of olive oil is the healing and strengthening effect it possesses.

When we are apprehensive, God offers us this sacrament to quiet anxiety and dissipate fear.

We are blessed with the peace of mind and confidence in God this sacrament bestows.

Following the homily, all are invited to be prayed for individually by prayer teams. The presider offers anointing. This sacrament provides spiritual, psychological and emotional healing and health of mind and body.

The essence of the sacrament is in the anointing of the person on the forehead and hands as the following prayer is prayed: "Through this holy anointing may our loving God, who frees you from sin, save you and raise you up." We respond, "Amen."

Come celebrate this sign of God's great merciful and healing love for us.

*Jesus went up the mountain, and after he had sat down...
He began to teach the crowd, saying "Blessed..."*

Matthew 5:1-12

Reflectio and Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday

Jesus went up the mountain and after he had sat down... He began to teach the crowd, saying "Blessed..." – Matthew 5:1-12

Jesus draws us together in the reality of our daily lives. The promise of the beatitudes comes true within a family of faith. How are we tender-hearted, poor in spirit, merciful, a unity builder, a peacemaker, one who seeks justice? Jesus asks us to live our life and share goodness with all.

We desire this humble way to follow Jesus, for this is holiness.

– S. Janice

MASS INTENTION

Sunday, November 1, 9:30 am

Our parents, relatives and friends who have gone before us and are now live fully in the embrace of our loving God.

PLEASE PRAY FOR HEALING FOR: Helen Barber, Vickie and Ed Deason, Mary Green, Mary Lee Howard, Willy Howard, John Towles, Ethel Long, Mary Meyer, Joetta Lukowski, Tracy and Usanga families; Michelle, Mike and Baby Jackson and their neighbor.

Lector, November 8: Mattie or Kenneth Patterson

COMMUNION OF SAINTS: We celebrate today's feast with words of those whom we know and love. Their words offer inspiration, faith and hope as we too live the beatitudes.

Father Rich on All Saints Day, 2015

Today we pause in the usual Sunday schedule to celebrate the Feast of All Saints. The SAINTS ARE ALL OF US.

We tend to look to those who lived long ago and far away because we conclude that we are not worthy enough. Fame and plaster form the saints of whom we typically remember and revere. In reality it is the flesh and blood of faith that characterize saints.

Together we help to complete the Body of Christ. We embrace each day that is given — to be saints for one another; to be faithful to Jesus the Christ; to be the Church that God calls us to be today.

Marie Kremer November 6, 2016

Marie led discussion about Pope's Francis encyclical: Laudato Si: Care for our Common Home. She wrote, "You are invited to visit the "CONFLUENCE" of the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers after mass next Sunday. Come see this place which designates the location of our city. Join us as we thank God for the abundance of sacred water which we use and enjoy."

ALL SOULS DAY, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2:

Prayer for those who have gone before us reaches deep into human history, and it has been our custom from the earliest days of the Church. To remember and to pray for a loved one, you are invited to enter their name in the book of remembrance near the baptismal font. We pray for them during the month of November.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING: Sunday, November 8, after Mass.

SOCK ANGEL: Sponsored by St. Matthew's Knight and Ladies Auxiliary of Peter Claver, this is a new campaign whose goal is to donate new socks to the local needy. Be an angel and please drop NEW SOCKS in the Box. This box will remain during the month of November. Thank you for your generosity.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK, SUNDAY NOVEMBER 22:

The first reading from Ezekiel says, "the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal." This sacrament offers healing to the ill, consolation to the dying as it celebrates and mediates God's grace to restore people to health, spiritual, physical and psychological — and to give hope for eternal life.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS:

Throughout the centuries, senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have served the Church and world. Today, they pray for and serve a world that suffers. Yet hundreds of religious communities do not have adequate retirement financial resources and struggle to provide for aging members. Your gift today helps provide medications, nursing care and more. Thanks for your generosity.

CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM, NOVEMBER 8:

Kelly Rebmann-McKay and Jarrod McKay were married in our church and are now bringing their son, Crew Edward to be baptized here next Sunday. Their sponsors are Mark Feldhaus and Melissa Rebmann. We celebrate this special day with them.

WE ARE GRATEFUL to all who made the Hyde Park Halloween event a success again this year. For several hours our parishioners greeted the procession of babies, young children, teens and adults who enjoyed our warm welcome and loved the candy treats. Thanks for your donations of candy and time to the children at Hyde Park.

S'MORES AFTER MASS THIS MORNING: You are invited to enjoy s'mores in the rectory garden. We are grateful to Donna Lindsay for supplying all of the ingredients. Please keep social distance and masks on when not eating. We enjoy each other's company on this blessed day.

VOTE ON TUESDAY: Let us respond with faithful citizenship, bringing our faith and consistent moral values contributing to the important work of bringing justice and peace to our communities, nation and world.

CONGRATULATIONS KENNETH PATTERSON!

Kenneth has successfully led us not only to meet our goal of $3,729, but to exceed it, raising $4,395 in the Annual Catholic Campaign for the Archdiocese of St. Louis. We are grateful to all parishioners for your generosity that makes this happen.

A TREE GIVES
glory
TO GOD
BY BEING A TREE.

This tree gives glory to God by spreading out its roots in the earth and raising its branches into the air in a way that no other tree before or after it ever did or will do.
