

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: February 1-March 1, 2020
Uplift Black-owned Businesses

There are many ways to uplift Black-owned businesses through these challenging times. One simple action to support people of color in St. Louis and combat racial injustices is by frequenting Black owned restaurants and shopping at the many exceptional Black-owned shops in our city.

Teatopia: “The best tea bar in St. Louis”

A quaint little tea shop plus wraps, salads, and small bites. The name, the brand, the message of the word, Teatopia, all stems from the word utopia. Utopia is described as a way in which everything is perfect. There’s enough negativity out in the world, and we wanted to create a place for people to leave the negative energy behind. A place where you can walk through the doors and every problem from the outside dissipates. It’s necessary to slow down and breathe. Many of us do not have the place for that and that’s why Teatopia exists.

Steve’s Hot Dogs has been celebrated for both its creative menu and its sense of community. Awarded both “Best Hot Dogs in St. Louis” and “Best Hot Dogs in Missouri,” Steve’s has been featured in People Magazine and on the Food Network. Simply put... These Dogs Rock!

*Holy the one... whose hope is GOD
 this one is like a tree planted beside the waters;
 fears not the heat; its leaves stay green; it bears abundant fruit.*

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Reflection and Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

MISSION: We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday

Holy the one...whose hope is GOD
this one is like a tree planted beside the waters;
fears not the heat; its leaves stay green; it bears abundant fruit. – Jeremiah 17: 5-8

Because our faith is rooted in a person, and because that person is Jesus risen, already ALL THINGS ARE NEW. In this newness the risen Jesus animates our lives. The presence of the risen Jesus brings NEW peace and NEW confidence to our lives now.

The resurrection is rooted in the person of Jesus. Resurrection reaches outward to form a family and a community of people fully alive to one another, with honor and love, with gratitude and hope.

Together, we are the tree planted beside the waters, fearless of heat, ever green and ever bearing new fruit.

We pray: Living Jesus, open our hearts to live abundantly in your grace, bringing new hope, new love, and new compassion to the world today.
– Sister Janice

ON SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 20, we will welcome Ms. Yvonne Jones, President of Homer G. Phillips Nursing Alumni Organization. The theme of Black History month is health and wellness. Ms Jones will speak at Mass about the past Homer G. Phillips hospital. We will also honor our parishioner, Ethel Long, who served as a nurse in this facility. These women are evangelizers, proclaiming wellness and new life.

MOST HOLY TRINITY EXTENDS THEIR SYMPATHY to family of Rosalind Robinson. Her sudden death was hard for all of us to realize. The memories of her beautiful singing remain in our hearts. Our prayers accompany Rosalind and her family as she enjoys the eternal embrace of our loving God.

Most Holy Trinity expresses gratitude to:
Paul, Bernadette and Choir. We know Rosalind's heart was in sacred music and in the choir. Your prayerful music led us well in the celebration of her life.
Donna Lindsay & Martha's Club. The lovely repast was appreciated by Rosalind's son, Oluremi, family and friends. In the days of missing her, the family will have fond memories of her home-going celebration.
The past staff and personnel of Most Holy Trinity Catholic School. Oluremi, Rosalind's son, recalled with fondness his Holy Trinity Catholic School days: ballroom dancing classes and performances, lunch times in the cafeteria, serving and lecturing at Mass, his friends and faithful tutors.

NO ONE KNOWS WHAT MAKES THE SOUL WAKE UP SO HAPPY.
MAYBE A DAWN BREEZE
HAS BLOWN THE VEIL
AWAY FROM THE FACE
OF GOD. – RUMI

For more than eight centuries, Persian poet, Rumi, has enchanted and enthralled readers from every faith with universal themes of love, friendship and spirituality.

Today, we celebrate Valentine's Day and recall the love of family and friends. Rumi leads us to the source of all love.
