*So whoever is in Christ is a new creation;
the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come.*

2 Corinthians 5:17

Reflection & Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday; 4:00 PM First Saturday of the Month

So whoever is in Christ is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

– 2 Corinthians 5:17

Joined with Christ in Baptism, we share in his sufferings and resurrection. As we experience a new creation in Christ, we know Jesus Christ through a deep and personal experience of his life within us each day. This right relationship with Christ comes through faith in Him, which requires knowing and trusting Christ who is joined to us in our suffering and our joy. What comfort and courage this gives us in our life challenges!

St. Paul reminds us of the newness that comes each day as well as when we have finished “running the race.” We too will receive the victor’s crown of sharing in Christ’s Resurrection.

– Sister Janice

LITURGY MEETING: after Mass this morning in the narthex of the church.

Loving God, you sent your Son, Jesus, the first Evangelizer of the Good News. Send forth the power of the Holy Spirit upon the Church of St. Louis and grant us the gift of true discernment so we may do your will in all things.

– Archdiocese of St. Louis

MARY IS A SOURCE OF STRENGTH FOR UKRAINIAN CHRISTIANS at this time of great oppression of their country. She is beloved in the Orthodox and Roman Catholic Church. Mary, Joseph and Jesus knew suffering first-hand as refugees when they fled King Herod. She is comforter for those seeking peace, protection and safety. May Mary be a source of comfort to all refugees as they flee unbearable conditions in search of a new place to call home.

PLEASE PRAY FOR: Ed Deason, Tom George, Mary Lee Howard, Ethel Long, Joetta Lukowski, Ryan McNair, Mary Meyer, Sharon Morrow, James Smith, Amanda Suchara, John Towles, and the Tracy and Usanga families.

 MASS INTENTION

Sunday, March 27, 9:30 am: Charlene Evans

CELEBRATION OF LIFE: CHARLENE EVANS THIS MORNING, MARCH 27, 2022

We remember Charlene as a fully engaged member of Most Holy Trinity parish. Faithfully, every Sunday, we see her sitting on the left side of church in the fourth pew. When the food pantry was located in Holy Trinity rectory, she was a worker we counted on every week, so dedicated to giving others life-giving food and household items. Only her illness in recent years, kept her away from being in church with us. As promised in Baptism, she is welcomed home to the glory of God forever. We offer our sympathy to the Evans family in the passing of Charlene. May her family and friends be comforted in the assurance of God’s gracious goodness and love. We, Charlene’s faith community, pray this final commendation for her:

With faith and hope in eternal life, we commend Charlene to the loving mercy of our faithful God. May Charlene be welcomed at the table with all of God’s daughters and sons, with all of God’s saints. May she inherit the gift of eternal life in peace and joy. May we be reunited with Charlene one day. Together may we meet Christ Jesus when he, who is our life, shall appear in glory.
