*See I am doing something new!
Now it springs forth.
Do you not perceive it?*

Isaiah 43:19

Reflection & Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday; 4:00 PM First Saturday of the Month

See I am doing something new!
Now it springs forth,
Do you not perceive it?
– Isaiah 43:19

How thrilling it is to walk
amid all the new life
emerging from the trees
and the earth!

Along with the budding
spring, we approach the celebration of salvation
through the Jesus' death and resurrection. The Church highlights hopeful images of newness offered in the words of Isaiah.

Isaiah reminds us that God is doing something new among us and within us. He urges us to open our eyes to see the fullness of life that comes in Christ.

We are created anew through Baptism. We are the new creation people of God offering our response:
grateful praise.

As we travel the fifth week of Lent, we reflect:
*what have we seen awakening within ourself?
how is something new breaking through in our life?
where in our heart, is grateful praise coming forth?*
– Sister Janice

THIS MORNING:

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM FOR EVERYONE
The Paschal Triduum is the heart of the liturgical year.
It is one prayer: Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. The Triduum is the opportunity to enter deeply into the experience of God's extraordinary love.

Like the woman who anointed the feet of Jesus a few days before he died, we are invited to pour out the treasure of our love, our prayer, and our time, to be fully with Christ. We set aside other concerns and activities to pray together one with the all the people of God and as Church.

HOLY WEEK

The Holiest of Weeks:

Holy Thursday

"Do this in remembrance of me" is not just a memory;
it is the beginning of a daily prayer: Jesus, I accept that you wash my feet; help me wash the feet of my brothers and sisters to become more like you.

Good Friday

We know Jesus is our rock and our refuge. He knows what suffering and feeling helpless means. We call on Jesus to find the strength and the grace to help us on our way.

Holy Saturday

On this evening the history of God's faithfulness to all people is recounted. We celebrate that rising from the dead Jesus has overcome our greatest enemy, death itself.

Easter Sunday

As we rejoice in the resurrection we pray that the risen Jesus renew in us the courage and faith to be co-creators and co-redeemers with our God in the light of the Holy Spirit.
