mhtstl.org | SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER | MAY 17, 2020

This week the Easter journey leads us to the feasts of the Ascension and Pentecost. Our hope is focused in Jesus' promise to all, "I will not leave you orphans." "I will send you the Spirit of truth, to be with you always."

The Spirit of Christ bears a mighty truth that challenges the world and transforms our hearts. We offer the world gracious gifts: welcoming all into our circle of friendship, strengthening our families, honoring all life, protecting the environment, keeping ourselves healthy, blessing others, consoling the sick and weary, and suffering, showing compassion, and living reconciliation.

This is the Way. We are the Body of Christ. We are the ones entrusted to live his mission daily. The gift of God's Spirit, given at Baptism and deepened at Confirmation, empowers us to carry on the mission of Christ, to make known to all that they are forever loved by a loving God.

Then they laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

GRACIOUS

WHERE IS THE SPIRIT
LEADING ME
THIS EASTER SEASON

Reflection: Jacque Buckley, SSND; Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

We pray: Jesus, you reveal yourself through your Spirit. You breathe your Spirit into all, daily. The planet relies on the gifts of your Spirit. You guide our scientists to find cures for the virus. You teach us to learn new ways of feeding our world family. We desire to love you by taking care of all creatures and all creation. Amen.

ARCHBISHOP CARLSON stated that churches, if meeting the requirements for safety, may open on May 18. When these requirements are published, the Liturgy Committee and the Parish Council will study them and talk about how, when and if we want to open for the celebration of Mass. While COVID-19 is active, all in the diocese retain the dispensation of the obligation to attending Mass.

MONSIGNOR NICHOLAS SCHNEIDER, in his thoughtfulness and kindness, is having memorials given to Trinity and to St. Monica's. We remember with gratitude the blessing he is to us.

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 4 PM Saturday Mass/Eucharistic Prayer Service in Rectory Chapel
9:30 AM Sunday in Church | 9:15 AM Wednesday School Mass in Church (during school year)
