MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday (church); 4:00 PM First Saturday of the Month (rectory chapel)

The disciples went to the mountain to which Jesus told them. When they saw him, Jesus said: "Go, and make disciples of all nations..." – Matthew 28

This day describes Jesus amid all. Through scripture, the sacraments, and community, we are blessed with and enfolded in his presence. We gather in our churches and devote our energy to the beauty, ritual, and dignity of our worship.

Graced with courageous hope, we open wide our doors inviting "all the nations" to come and share the celebration of being loved by a God who is always with us.

– Sister Janice

MAGNIFICENT... PERFECT... AMAZING...
WONDERFUL... AWESOME

These words were used by many to describe their experience of our celebration of Most Holy Trinity's 175th Anniversary. Father Dempsey added, "At Most Holy Trinity I experience community at its best." It is the work of the whole community when such exuberant words of praise are spoken by the attendees. Most Holy Trinity expresses deep gratitude and appreciation to:

Liturgy and Reception Committees for their hours of planning and preparation: Korky and Madonna Buhr, Robin Feeherty, Michael Freymuth, Paul Hasser, Nicky Hoxworth, Donna Lindsay, Melita Long, Meg Reask, Sister Gail and Sister Janice.

All who worked to make the Mass and Reception so magnificent: Musicians and choir, all liturgical ministers, church and cafeteria cleaners, elevator assistants, hospitality, set up and clean up and those who were in readiness to help with any need.

Thanks to: Robin Feeherty and Nicky Hoxworth for hours of mopping up after the intense rainfall; Kelley Direct for the mailings; Sister Gail for writing of the publication; Sister Joyelle for editing and Jean Lopez for layout of our Most Holy Trinity's 175th Anniversary booklet; Sister Janice for the worship aids; Mary Busciglio for computer guidance; and Linda Nash, photographer.

Our church is a house of prayer. The presence of all makes it a place of blessing. Thanks to all parishioners for the beauty that was created and for their dedication to Most Holy Trinity.
