*Do not let your hearts be troubled...
have faith in God...*

John 14:1

What troubles my heart today
WHAT STRENGTHENS MY FAITH IN TIMES OF TROUBLE?

Reflection:: Joanne Dehmer, SSND; Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday (church); 4:00 PM First Saturday of the Month (rectory chapel)

Do not let your hearts be troubled...
have faith in God – John 14:1

In this gospel, Jesus desires to calm the anxiety of his disciples. This passage is also meant for each of us, his disciples today. We ask ourselves, "What troubles my heart today?"

What strengthens our faith? This passage assures us that Jesus wants the disciples to know he is with them always, when encountering difficulties, moments of joy...always and all ways. Jesus calls us to a relationship of trust and assures us that he always companions us, walks with us. We only desire to remember. How blest we are!

Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church

We remember the first small German faith community, asking God to bless their beginnings. Generations of parishioners followed and opened wide the doors of Holy Trinity to all. God lovingly blessed the faith-filled people who called this church, school, and neighborhood their home.

We celebrate God's faithfulness that weaves through 175 years enfolding parishioners being steadfast in God's love. Jesus is the cornerstone, on whom we build our faith.

We exclaim with Solomon as he blessed the temple, "Praised be to God, there is no God like you in heaven above and on the earth below. You keep the covenant of love with your people who continue wholeheartedly to be faithful to you with all their hearts." (1 Kings 8:23)
