Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life....

John 6: 54

FOREVER WHOEVER

HOW DO I DAILY LIVE “ONE BREAD, ONE BODY”?

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday (church); 4:00 PM First Saturday of the Month (rectory chapel)

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life. – John 6:54

The Eucharist...abundant generosity, faithfulness, and commitment — all that Jesus is for us without reservation. In Eucharist, in sharing bread and wine, we deepen our relationship with each other, and live the call to imitate the life of Jesus as we offer our lives in the service of others.

In every Eucharist the community of faith becomes more fully the Body of Christ. Eucharist is a way of life, a way of being the living Christ in our world today. In the celebration we are one body, one in Christ. In receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus we share in God's life today and the promise of Divine Life forever.

Daily, we deepen our awareness and gratitude for this astonishing gift of God.

We reflect this week: How do I daily live "one bread, one body?"

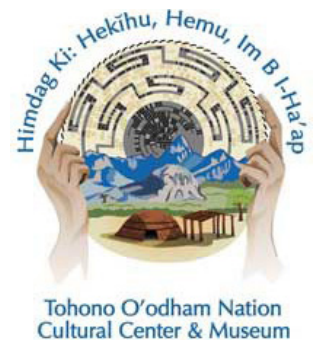

– Sister Janice

A GRAND AND WONDERFUL CELEBRATION:

Thanks to all for the prayer, fun and food we had at our gathering last Sunday in the rectory garden. We appreciate the set-up and work of Nicky Hoxworth and Robin Feeherty and the BBQ prepared for us by Lynn Gresham. God gave us the shade we desired as we enjoyed our time together.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART:

This feast is a grand celebration for the Tohono O'odham Nation in Covered Wells, Arizona where S. Janice ministered. This year she will attend their celebration. Please remember all Native Americans in prayer as they reaffirm the love that Jesus has for them.

EUCCHARIST: A GIFT TO ALL. "Every time we receive Jesus, he reminds us that we are precious, that we are guests he has invited to the banquet, his friends with whom he wants to dine. And not only because he is generous, but because he is truly in love with us. Jesus sees and loves the beauty and goodness that we are. We become a gift to God and to our sisters and brothers." – Pope Francis

WE HOLD IN HEART AND PRAYER: Philip Brown, Ed Deason, Joan Hasser, Hazel Hosea, Mary Lee Howard, Doris (Feeherty) Janz, Lester Jones (Uncle of Rochelle Jones), Sarah Jones, Ethel Long, Mary Meyer, Sharon Morrow, Marta Reyna, James Smith, John Towles, Shelley Tracy, and the Tracy and Usanga families.

ONE BODY BROKEN AND BLESSED

Dear Friends,

I am Fr. Mitch Doyen, soon to be joining you as the new pastor of your new parish. I am very much looking forward to working with Srs. Janice and Gail, Fr. Art, our new Episcopal Vicar, Fr. Scott, and most of all, with all of you as we discern how God is calling us next to be one body, broken and given for the life of the world. I know that this time of transition will be filled with many emotions for all of us; I believe that is precisely where our God comes to meet us, in the very midst of our vulnerability. Let our hearts remain open to one another as we discover new ways of building the Kingdom, serving the poor and proclaiming the Gospel in our community.

I am sure I will be crossing paths with all of you over the next few weeks as we make our preparations for our new beginning together. I will be sending a message each week through your bulletins. In my 32 years as a priest I have had opportunity to work with many of you and I cherish this new invitation to collaborate with all of you. In the meantime, let us pray for one another and invite God's Spirit to lead us forward in hope. God bless you.
