*Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.*

Matthew 11:25-30

DELIGHT IN OUR LOVE

Reflection and Design: Joyelle Proot, SSND

MISSION:

We are a people graced by God, who come together as a community of faith, supporting each other as we live and celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Parish Mass Schedule: 9:30 AM Sunday (church); 4:00 PM First Saturday of the Month (rectory chapel)

Resting in Jesus

Jesus invites us, "Come to me and I will give you rest..." Then Jesus challenges us, "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me..." Jesus is inviting us into a deeper relationship with him. We will find rest in him only if we let go of the reigns of our own life. Once we are yoked to Christ, we cannot claim to have our own life. Walking side by side with Christ is a beautiful way to move in this world; there can be no more sudden turns. Our productivity will multiply, bringing more compassion and generosity. Our anxiety will diminish, bringing less resentment and judgment.

As we journey together into a deeper understanding of what it means to be one parish with three churches, let us trust the most important call to become one body in Christ. Let us together yoke ourselves to Christ. Jesus provides the yoke, yet he trusts us to walk beside him. We are his followers, yet he washes our feet. We listen to his teaching, yet he sends us to proclaim the Gospel. He has poured out his life for us, yet he calls us to be his hands, his feet, his voice, his heart in the world.

This yoke of Christ which we place on our shoulders fits elegantly; it connects with the very Spirit of Christ already dwelling within us. It is already our yoke as well. In accepting Jesus' invitation, we come into our true lives. We can rest in him because he always has, is now and will forever be our true home.

St. Nicholas, St. Teresa of Avila, and St. Bridget, pray for us. May the Most Holy Trinity be glorified in us.

Fr. Mitch Doyen

WE HOLD IN HEART AND PRAYER: Philip Brown, Ed Deason, Hazel Hosea, Joanie Hasser, Mary Lee Howard, Doris (Feeherty) Janz, Lester Jones (uncle of Rochelle Jones), Sarah Jones, Ethel Long, Mary Meyer, Sharon Morrow, Marta Reyna, James Smith, John Towles and the Tracy & Usanga families. WITH DEEPEST SYMPATHY to Nicky Hoxworth at the death of her beloved brother, Richard Molkenbur. Richard entered the eternal embrace of our loving God on July 4. Most Holy Trinity offers our condolences and prayer for Nicky and her family in their loss. Although Richard resided in San Diego, California, he remained a wonderful and generous supporter of Trinity. We will celebrate his life at a later date.

CELEBRATING OUR NEIGHBORS: WOMEN ON MISSION – ST. LOUIS. We are a group of women on a mission to empower our neighbors of College Hill to revitalize their community by offering large grants each June. Grants are made to non-profit organizations dedicated to revitalizing the College Hill community. These grants are resident-approved and voted on by our members.

Our group is organized as a giving circle, open to any woman who donates a minimum of $1000 annually. Women under 40 can join for a donation of $500. All donations are tax deductible.
